Job Purpose

To ensure that the spa therapy suite is a special place to be for guests, by providing them with the most relaxing and enjoyable range of treatments. Achieve the highest standards of guest care and attention, by providing a professional but friendly therapy service at all times. Utilise therapy expertise to advise guests on spa treatments and products and use initiative to ensure high levels of guest satisfaction are achieved.

Principal Accountabilities

Guests

1. Carry out consultations and treatments to a consistently high standard, and in accordance with standard operating procedures. Ensure a full guest consultation is carried out prior to performing any spa treatment and provide detailed aftercare and retail suggestions with the aim to enhance lifestyle and wellbeing.
2. Show willingness to provide a consistently high standard of treatments, be prompt with your time to ensure all guests receive the correct hands-on treatment time.
3. Advise guests about the range of available spa and beauty treatments to ensure they meet their personal needs and enhance the spa experience.
4. Use excellent communication skills and product knowledge to explain treatment procedures to guests and provide information about the products used during the treatment.
5. Carry out treatments to a high standard. Ensure massages are carried out in accordance with the guest's individual preference, including the amount of pressure and their specific areas of tension.
6. Use personal judgement to gauge the amount of communication required with guests during treatments, usually keeping this to a minimum with the aim of ensuring guest wellbeing during the procedure.
7. Meet and greet guests in a warm, welcoming and caring manner, escort them to and from treatment rooms and ensure they have all the information they require to make their therapy experience special.
8. Maintain up to date professional knowledge of products and treatments, ensuring the correct amounts of product are used during treatments and answer any questions from guests about their use.
9. Seek direct feedback from customers, providing the best possible customer service. Ensuring that any complaints are addressed immediately to the guest's satisfaction and in accordance with the Complaints Policy.

Spa Therapy Facilities

1. Maintain a high standard of cleanliness of work areas, treatment rooms, therapy floor and waiting area so that the best possible impression is given to guests.
2. Ensure there is an available supply of towels, linens, products and other amenities for the efficient delivery of treatments during each shift.

3. Carry out all close down and clean up duties at the end of each shift in accordance with standard procedures.
4. Follow all Health & Safety procedures and instructions accordingly and ensure a safe environment. Report any accidents, or health and safety risks immediately to the Therapy Manager and abide by health and safety policy and procedures at all times.

Therapy Team

1. Work positively as a member of the therapy team, co-operating with team colleagues and helping the team remain motivated to deliver the best possible service to guests.
2. Establish strong professional relationships with guests to help to build a successful client base for the Therapy team.
3. Take pride in the work of the therapy team and work with team colleagues to proactively suggest improvements to the Spa Therapy service.
4. Lead the way by showing willingness to perform treatments and presenting yourself to both staff and guests in full uniform standards.
5. With the Therapy Manager, ensure the Therapy team achieve the highest standards, in accordance with the Operational Spa Excellence principles.
